DEDICATION

For many years we have trustingly placed ourselves under Mary's Mantle, and because she has kept us so safe and secure, we, the Seniors of '48 do fondly and lovingly dedicate this year's "Marian" to our beloved Mother, Mary, Mistress of Heaven and Queen of our hearts. The words gratitude and thanks are "too often profaned" by us mortals, but since these are the best we have, we will offer them to you, dear Lady. To you, who are the patroness of youth we pray—keep us forever safe and pure, under "your Mantle;" guide us on our way and keep before us always the high ideals and standards taught to us by those under your patronage. Take then, oh Mother dear, our "Marian" as the fondest pledge of our love. We hope with all our hearts it may mean as much to you as it does to us, for it is a storehouse of memories sacredly locked in the heart of every true child of Mary.

O Mary, Keep Us Under Your Protecting Mantle

PRESENTING THE SENIORS IN CAP AND GOWN AND AS WE LIKE TO REMEMBER THEM

Mary Jo Vrazel . . . "Vrazel"
Class President . . .
Sugar 'n' spice 'n' everything
nice . . . a good listener . . . model
Maryite . . . sweet as she is sympathetic . . . a good leader and a ready follower.

Mary Ellen Neal . . .
Vice President
A replica of the sweetest girl in Grandmother's photograph album
. . . blue eyes and gay smile as Irish as her name . . . Intelligence and personality born of inward holiness and sweet simplicity of soul.

Ann Marie Hilt . . .
Secretary-Treasurer
Possesses a silence that persuades when speaking fails. She cannot be easily influenced by others. She has great dreams and ambitions. Her piano renditions remind us of the softest, sweetest, speech of the angels.

Georgielene Bowman . . .
"Georgie"

Pretty as a posy . . . twinkling eyes that betray a love for mischief . . . a heart overflowing with kindness . . . to know her is to love her.

Lotte George

Marie Brenner . . .

Eyes that are blue as April skies and warm as the summer sun . . . the gold in her hair is but a reflection of her sweet nature. A shy dimple winks at you when she smiles.

*Jane
Marie*

Mary Beth Campbell . . .

Photogenic . . . demure, diminutive, dainty . . . typical Southern belle . . . Lavender and Old Lace hair like spun gold frames her face.

Angelita Castillo . . . "Angie"

Quiet as the breath of angels in benediction; mischievous eyes
. . . raven like tresses, a good mixer.

Adele D'Ortona . . . "Chubby"

Petite, pretty and popular . . .
as effervescent and sparkling as the morning dew . . . a personality
all her own.

Betty Garcia . . .

Cute as a speckled pullet . . .
peppy and spicy as a Latin tune
. . . dancing eyes that match her tapping toes . . . as unconventional and unpredictable as the weather.

Maureen Heiman . . .

Quiet and collective . . . inner grace reflecting in a lovely face . . . soft velvet voice . . . a timid smile . . . loving eyes.

Emma Hinojosa . . . "Linda"

Long tapering fingers that suggest an artistic temperament . . . a lullaby-like voice . . . the essence of courtesy.

Betty Jane Huddleston . . .

Two little stars sparkle in her misty blue eyes . . . sunshine reflects in her warm, sweet, laughter . . . always busy . . . eager to please, casting a delightful spell wherever she goes . . . an irreplaceable friend.

Rita Kalka . . .

Sweet and fresh as the morning sunlight—shining eyes that speak a language all their own . . . a real knack for knowledge . . . tiny sunbeams dance in her soft warm smile . . . loveliness that speaks of hidden beauty.

Norma Jean Knopp . . . "Jeanie"

A problem child in a way . . . black eyes to accentuate her pixie features . . . pretty as she is popular . . . clever and cute.

Dolores Kolodzie . . . "Dokey"

Possesses a wit that invites all to be happy and bright. Her heart is truly made of gold. Her eyes speak, when her lips are silent. The light drops a diadem on her lovely hair that is long and wavy.

Rosemary Krizek . . .

The sweetness of a rosebud is symbolic of her . . . peaches and cream complexion . . . fun and fancy free . . . pretty as a picture.

Patsy Kuntz . . .

A reserved dignity . . . pleasant to know . . . quietness that speaks typically of its owner . . . sure prediction of lasting kindness . . . everybody's friend.

Adelaide LeVison . . . "Model A"

Cute as a nymph . . . surprising as a sudden ray of sunlight . . . her eyes are soft as those of a fawn one minute and flashing with determination the next.

Ethyllynn Lovelace . . . "Judy"
Mischievous twinkle in her eyes
. . . attractive dimples . . . everybody's friend . . . loves to laugh.

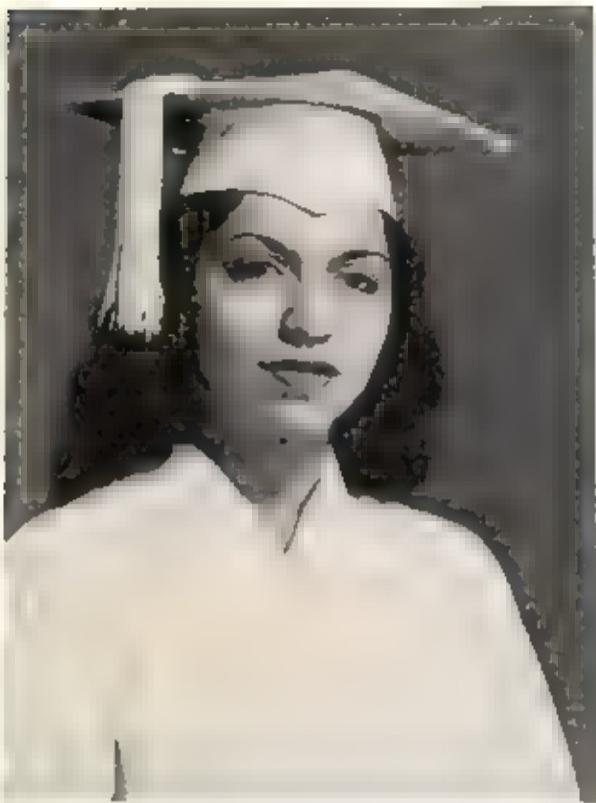

Beatrice Lowe . . . "Bee Bee"
A fluffy angel on top of the Christmas tree . . . as naive and ingenuo as her blue eyes . . . has captured the gold of the sun in her beautiful hair . . . a becoming blush.

Elva Lutz . . .
A fountain of generosity . . .
dolly like features . . . sympathetic nature.

Yolanda Marquez . . .

Hair as black as jet . . . generous of heart . . . gifted in all things artistic . . . quiet by nature.

Bertha Martinez . . .

Mischiefous brown eyes . . . agreeable manners . . . a kind word for everyone.

Alice Miller . . . "Honey"

Fidelity that shines like the gold of the chrysanthemum . . . a sparkling wit . . . an all-around Maryite. A good typist and a capable concert mistress.

Mary Elva Mize . . .

A voice as clear as a silver flute
. . . tinkling, girlish laughter . . .
tumbling curls to frame her classic beauty . . . she walks in beauty
. . . makes friends as readily as she smiles.

Margaret Ann Renken . . ."Booty"

As fair and lovely as the rose of white, touched by the grace of a fairy-queen's wond.

Olga Rodriguez . . . "Pam"

Pretty . . . shining green eyes that go very well with her beautiful chestnut color hair . . . photogenic . . . dainty . . . simple neatness . . . full of gayety.

Dolores Slavin . . . "Lollie"

Quietness that bespeaks dignity . . . blithe spirit . . . lyrical voice personality plus . . . anxious to please . . . cinnamon eyes.

Victoria Talerico . . . "Vicky"

Joy and laughter whenever she is around . . . hair black as midnight to match her beautiful rosy complexion . . . ideal Central football queen . . . radio singing star . . . very dependable . . . generous and lovable . . . all around.

Dolores Wueste . . .

To a heart of gold add a wonderful sense of humor and presto "Wueste" . . . around her life can never be dull . . . an indomitable spirit . . . a true leader.

OUR SODALITY AT WORK

The regular sodality of the Junior Children of Mary is composed of seventy high school girls, who belong to St. Mary's Parish and those who do not have a sodality in their own parish. All the other high school girls are present at the meetings and take part in all the social activities but they do not hold office.

The first social activity of the sodality is a "Get Acquainted Party." Following this, comes the big spiritual event of the school year, namely a retreat. Other spiritual and social activities throughout the year are "The Living Rosary," Mass and Procession at the Grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes, Guards of Honor during Forty Hours Devotion, Distributing Christmas Boxes and Baskets to the Needy, Christmas Formal Dance, Sponsoring Clothes Drive for the Needy, Distribution of Catholic Literature, Giving Vocation Plays, and Helping the Missionaries.

The closing high light of the year is the annual May Procession in which the prefect crowns Our Blessed Lady and the assistant officers act as attendants.

SENIOR CLASS WIN IN LILY FUND CONTEST FOR THREE CONSECUTIVE YEARS

It is the privilege of every sodalist to save her pennies and nickels during Lent to buy lilies for the Repository on Holy Thursday.

Competition runs high among the various classes and this year a new zeal has entered in for the seniors are determined to come out first in order to make perfect their four years of contesting.

Congratulations, Seniors, on your splendid achievement of three years. Time remains for final hand shakes . . .

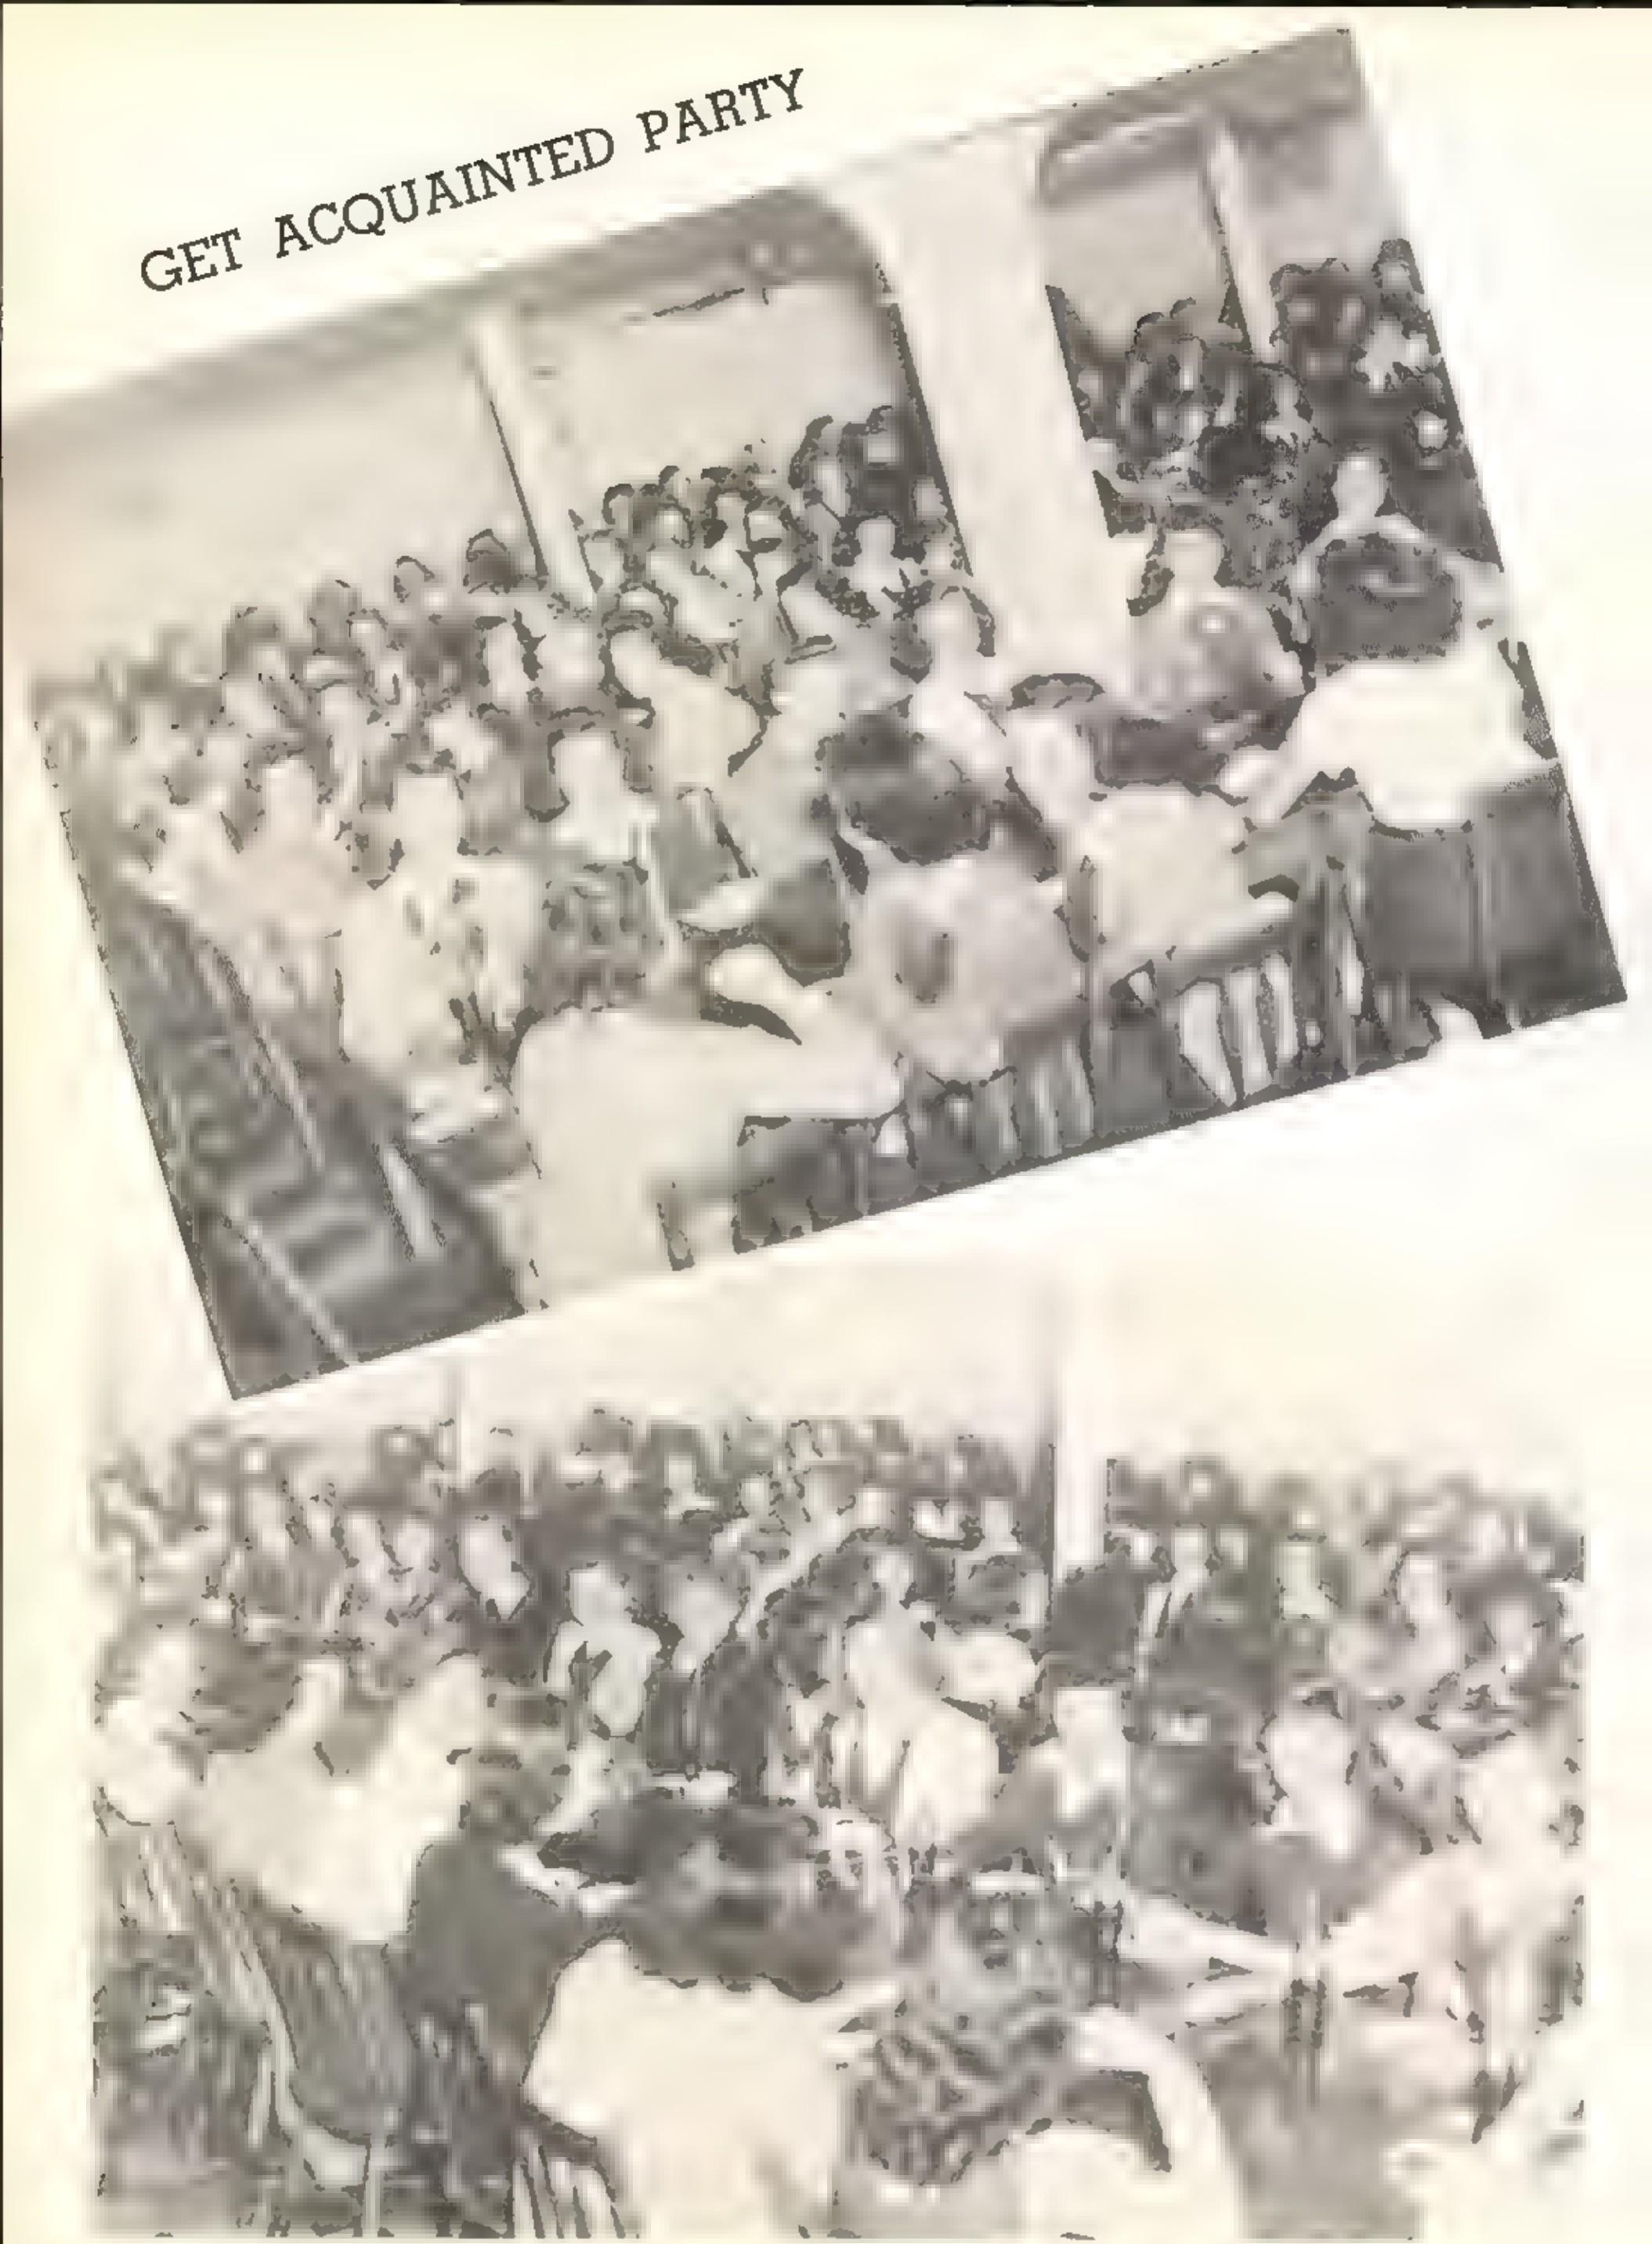

The contest opens on Ash Wednesday and closes the Tuesday before Holy Thursday.

OUR ANNUAL RETREAT

Father and the Sodality Officers Discuss Questions

General Communion at the Close of Retreat

The big spiritual event of the first three days of October was the annual retreat conducted by Rev. Joseph Ryan O. M. I., former pastor of St. Mary's. The girls were unanimous in saying that it was one of the best retreats they had ever made. Fired with the determination to start the scholastic year well, every Maryite looked forward to deriving real spiritual values from the three days of silence and recollection.

SODALISTS ATTEND MASS AT GROTTO

The Feast of the Holy Rosary is always celebrated with due solemnity at De Mazenod Seminary where the Grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes forms a beautiful background for the occasion. It's an annual event for Maryites to attend Mass and walk in procession.

'IT WAS LOTS OF FUN PACKING BOXES FOR THE CHILDREN OF EUROPE'

Upon the announcement of a "clothes drive" for the needy children of Europe, little boys and girls and big boys and girls could be seen boarding the busses with bundles and boxes, some bigger than themselves. And those bundles and boxes contained clothes and shoes that any child would be proud to wear. The teachers, while helping the pupils pack the boxes for shipping, just wondered if a few wardrobes hadn't been stripped while mother was busy about other things.

THE ANNUAL PROCESSION TO THE CRIB

Three or four days previous to the closing of school for the Christmas holidays, each high school girl is presented with a cellophane bag. In it she places candy and nuts to be carried in procession to the Crib on the fourth floor where her gift is presented to the Christ Child for the poor.

With Joan Richter at our little portable organ, the freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors march from their respective classrooms singing Christmas carols as they present their gifts to the Infant King. All the students then assemble in the large study hall for the conclusion of the procession.

And the angel being come in, said unto her: Hail full of grace, the Lord is with thee: Blessed art thou among women . . .

* And the angel said to her: Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found grace with God . . .

And Mary rising up in those days went into the hill country with haste into a city of Juda. And she entered into the house of Zachary and saluted Elizabeth . . .

And there were in the same country shepherds watching, and keeping the night-watches over their flock.

And behold an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the brightness of God shone round about them, and they feared with a great fear.

CHRISTMAS FORMAL

The Christmas Formal, December 29, sponsored by the Sodality has always been an event looked forward to by every sodalist. The planning for the big affair begins in September and the memories of that "wonderful night" last throughout the year.

Sodality officers and volunteers enjoyed decorating the auditorium with miniature Christmas trees, candles and clusters of hanging stars; while the stage with its rich red velvet curtain formed a pleasing background for a huge white tree and a decidedly roguish looking snowman.

Second row—Norma Jean Knopp, Mary Jo Vrazel, Elaine Bendele, Patsy Le Vison.

THE HIGH LIGHT OF THE SODALITY

On the Eve of Mary's month it is traditional that both the grade and high school sodality assemble in church to pay homage to the Queen of Heaven.

Since our annual goes to press before this event takes place it is not possible to present the crowning as it really is, but a little resume here will help our readers to visualize it.

All the grammar grades march into church singing the beautiful May hymns, while a number of high school girls in sodality cape and cap follow. They present a bouquet before our Blessed Lady at an improvised altar in the sanctuary. All the members of the choral club, in their beautiful white formals, form an archway with pink gladiolii in the main aisle through which the queen, her attendants, and court pass to the sanctuary. The girls of the court are clothed in formals of pastel shades and wear a shoulder veil and wreath of delicate pink flowers.

After the crowning of Our Blessed Lady a sermon and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament bring the evening ceremony to a close.

Prefect—Mary Jo Vrazel and her attendants, Dolores Wueste, Patsy LeVison, Norma Jean Knopp, Adelaide Le Vison.

CONFRATERNITY TEACHERS ON THEIR WAY TO VARIOUS CENTERS

Left to Right: Mildred Godwin, Annie Garza, Norma Jenschke, Mary Jane Hajek, Clare Edwards, Isabel McClosky, Patsy Le Vison, Lois Saenger.

For three consecutive years some of these girls have gone weekly to various centers to teach the little children who are unable to attend a Catholic school. In conjunction with their helpers, other girls of the high school, prepare cards, booklets, posters and gather material from the various grade classrooms. They then discuss ways and means of presenting lessons to their charges.

On several occasions throughout the year the children are entertained with a party by their teachers. A well-organized Christmas party is the "big" event of the season.

THOUSANDS PRESENT FOR REGIONAL CCD PARLEY

DELEGATES OF 25 DIOCESES IN 17 STATES
ATTEND INTER-AMERICAN SESSIONS,
OCTOBER 23-25

As the first regional Inter-American Congress of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine was held in San Antonio thousands flocked to the various centers to hear more than 100 experts discuss the various phases of the Confraternity.

The Congress opened with Pontifical Mass in the Municipal Auditorium with Most Reverend Mariana S. Garriga, D. D., Coadjutor Bishop of Corpus Christi, Texas, presiding. The welcoming address was given by Most Reverend Robert E. Lucey S.T.D. Archbishop of San Antonio. Most Reverend Edwin V. O'Hara D. D., Bishop of Kansas City, Missouri, and Most Reverend Matthew Francis Brady D. D., Bishop of Manchester, New Hampshire, spoke at length on the history of the Confraternity and how to organize a parish confraternity.

Throughout the congress eminent speakers discussed various phases of the Confraternity both for the religious and the lay apostolate.

Meetings were held in the Gunter and Plaza Hotels and in our own school auditorium and class rooms. Simultaneous classroom demonstrations were given both in English and Spanish.

Among the Sisters from various orders giving lectures or classroom demonstrations were Sisters M. Bernice, Moderator of C.C.D., and Susanna Marie, Sisters of Divine Providence from our Lady of the Lake College.

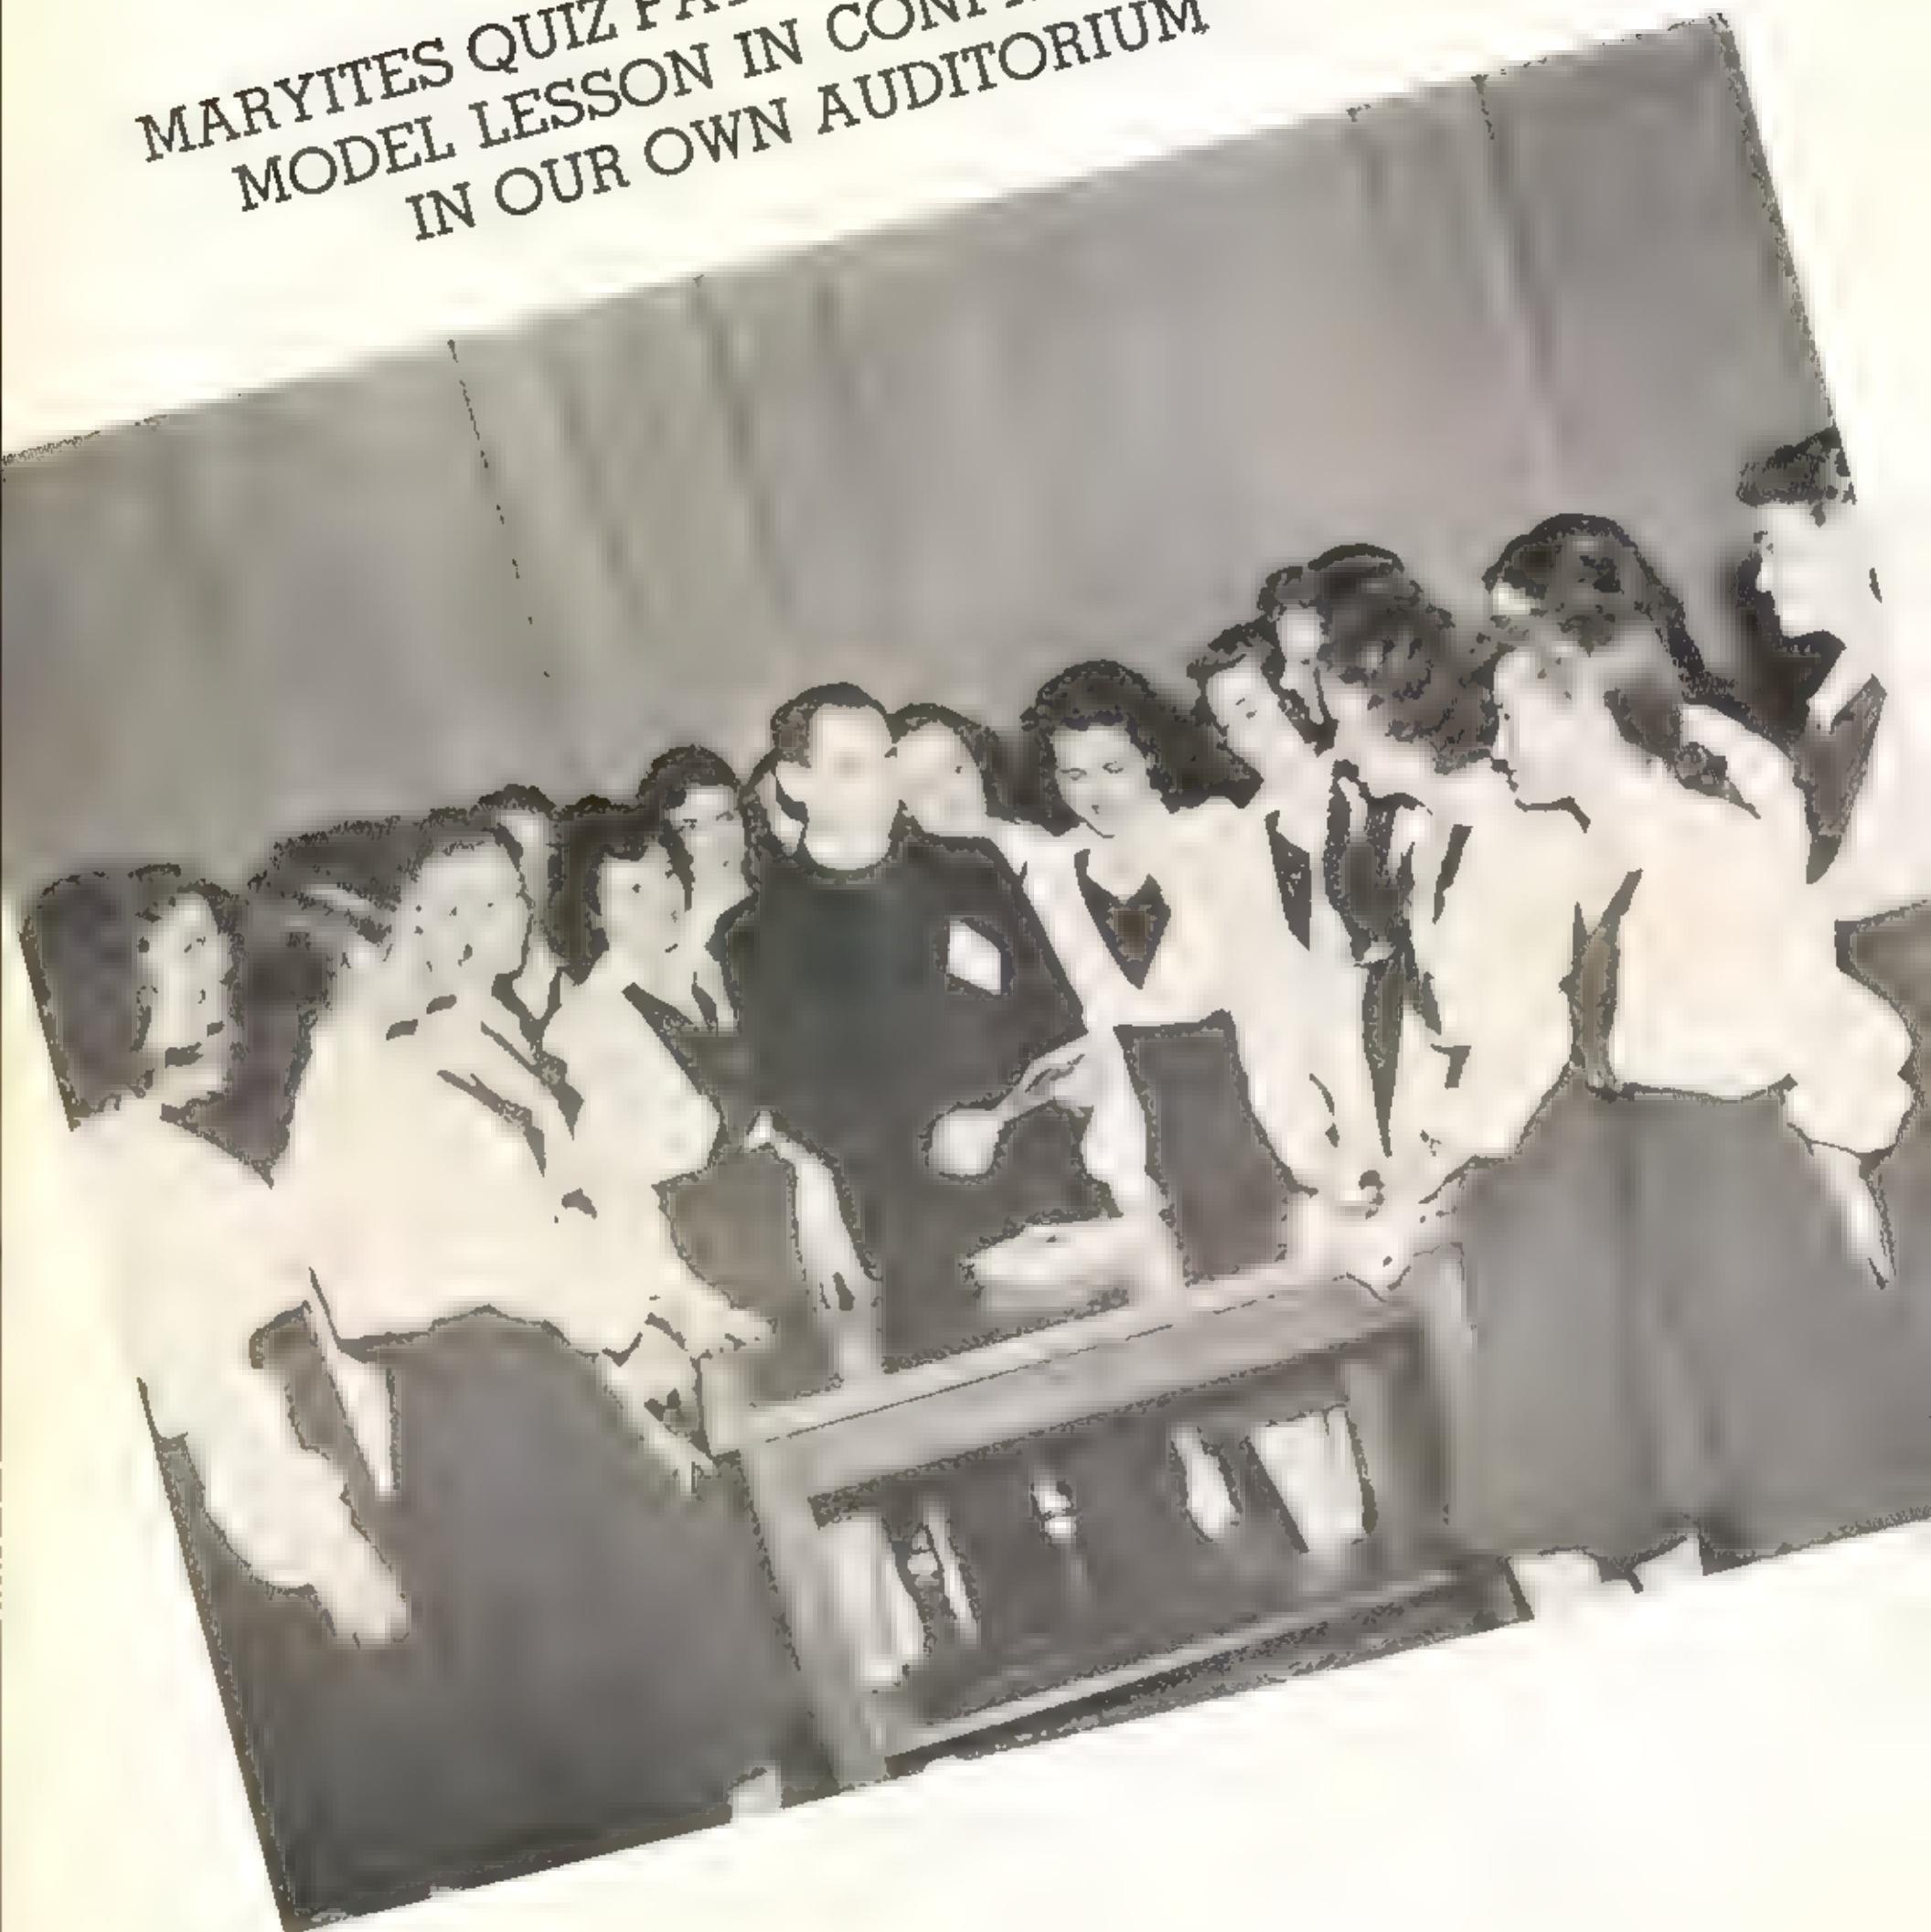

Throughout the Congress, St. Mary's High School Confraternity teachers and helpers were hostesses at our own school and pages at the Gunter Hotel.

PROUDLY DISPLAYING NCHSTA TROPHY

For the eighth consecutive year St. Mary's has merited first or second place in the National Catholic High School Typists' Association. This award came too late for the Annual of '47.

Special certificates for scoring high as individuals were awarded to Rita Kalka, Georgielene Bowman, Alice Miller and Dolores Wueste.

PUBLIC SPEAKING CLASS GIVE COMEDIES AT ASSEMBLY "HOW THE STORY GREW"

It was just a simple story about a family moving into the Smith house, but the gossips of the neighborhood added so much that they had pore' Mrs. Brown dead, pounded to a jelly and almost buried by the occupants of the house. The humorous little climax came when Mrs. Brown herself appeared on the scene and announced that the family was their new minister.

The Village Gossips were: Dolores Kolodzie, Betty Garcia, Beatrice Lowe, Rita Kalka, Ethyllynn Lovelace, Margaret Ann Renken, Adelaide LeVison, and Yolanda Marquez.

"A Perplexing Situation" a two-act comedy, brought amusement to the high school girls when the Public Speaking Class proved to the audience that women could hold their tongues through an entire day. Of course, they were being paid to do so and that altered the situation. Uncle Ep, a visitor from the country was the humorous vein of the whole play.

The girls taking part were Victoria Taerico, Florence Tocc, Olga Rodriguez, Eva Lutz, Georgilene Bowman, Adelaide LeVison, Ethyllynn Lovelace, Marie Brenner, Mary Elva Mize, Mary Ellen Neal, Helen Blizex and Alice Miller.

NINE BANDS AND CORPS PARTICIPATE IN FOURTH ANNUAL EVENT

CENTRAL CATHOLIC BUTTONS AND YELLOW JACKETS TOOK FIELD AT 3 O'CLOCK, SUNDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER, 16. SCORE 18 TO 0 IN FAVOR OF ST. ANTHONY'S APOSTOLIC SCHOOL.

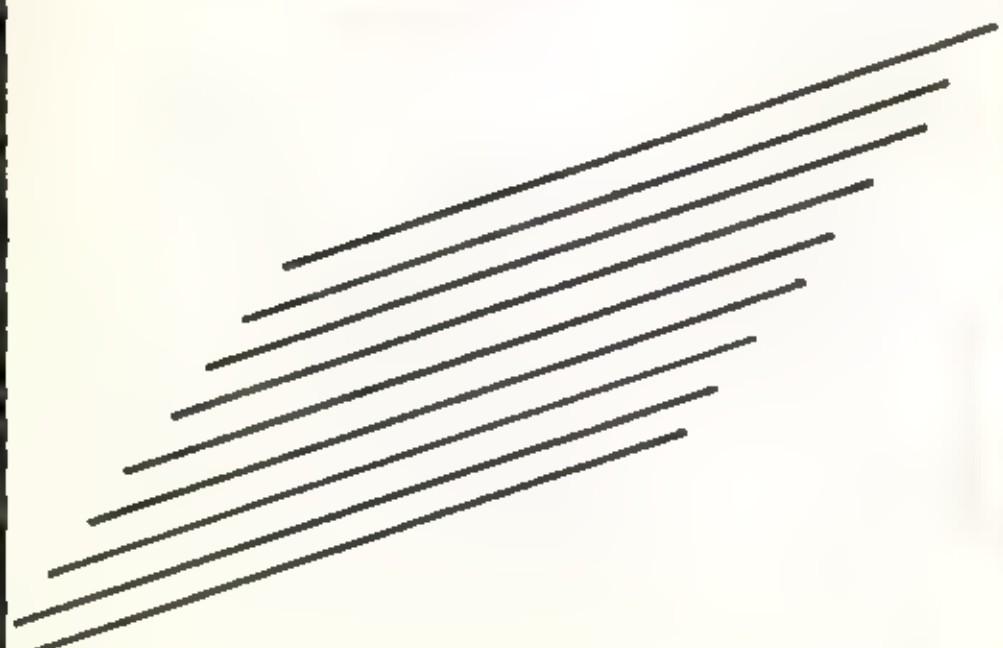

Dressed in regal robes and with her royal sceptre in hand, our little Victoria, a senior of St. Mary's gave the signal Sunday afternoon at the Alamo Stadium to open the gala fourth annual musical festival and benefit football game.

The Central Catholic Buttons and the Yellow Jackets of St. Anthony's Apostolic School who met for the first time in several years took the field of contest at 3 o'clock sharp to vie for the attention of the queen and her court.

Because our school led in the sale of football tickets and because Victoria Talerico sold the most tickets of any student in the school, St. Mary's was given the privilege of selecting a queen for the annual event. Maids of honor were likewise chosen by highest ranking schools. Barbara Ann Richter, a junior from St. Mary's enjoyed this privilege. Our pages were Josephine Williams and Danny Neal.

A HIGHLIGHT OF FEBRUARY— THE JUNIOR SWEETHEART DANCE

As the lovely lady, Elaine of the House of Bendels broke through the heart, her escort Lloyd Oppermann was there to claim her for his sweetheart of the evening. The honorees and their escorts looked on with delight while pretty, petite Jean Walden acted as Mistress of Ceremonies.

EIGHT SENIORS AND ONE JUNIOR RECEIVE POETRY AWARD

For the eighth consecutive year, the high school girls of St. Mary's have received poetry awards from the National High School Poetry Association of Los Angeles, California.

Those represented in the fall anthology are Mary Jo Vrazel, Adelaide Le Vison, Alice Miller, Margaret Ann Renken, Ann Marie Hilt, Mary Elva Mize (special mention), Cecilia Flores, Norma Knopp, Mary Beth Campbell.

GUARDS OF HONOR

Early in the scholastic year when Reverend Mother Angelique, the Superior General of the Sisters of Divine Providence, visited our school she gave us such an inspiring talk on the necessity of living by faith and setting good example to others that we were very much impressed by the earnestness of her convictions. She spoke at length on vocations and suggested that all the high school girls form a Guard of Honor before the Blessed Sacrament by making a little visit in the convent chapel during the day.

Now each respective classroom, beginning with the seniors, has a special day for these visits. From 9:45 in the morning until 3 o'clock in the afternoon these Guards of Honor spend fifteen minutes in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. They recite the rosary and say a special prayer for vocations.

FIRST AID PUPILS POSE WITH THEIR TEACHER MRS. HUTHMACHER

The above group of girls followed a regular First Aid Course for eight weeks under the direction of Mrs. E. A. Huthmacher. Both pupils and teacher enjoyed the course, and to quote the students, "We really learned some worth-while things."

1963 OR JUST DREAMING DREAMS

Double trouble, boil and bubble, Fire burn and caldron bubble. Twas midnight in the Forest of Fores and Hecate and her three sisters were busily engaged in stirring a forboding looking brew in their black kettle. They took the silver of the midnight moon and the hoot of a wild owl caught n their trap and added this to the hissing, bubbling matter boiling over a leaping fire. Their faces became horrible caricatures when caught in the erie shadows of the night. Suddenly the whole forest echoed with a horrib e scream when Hecate cried aloud in delight as the brew began to clear. Full of eager anticipation they all leaned forward and peering into the future, fifteen years hence they saw . . .

GEORGIELENE BOWMAN—Vacationing on the wh te sands of Albuquerque, dropping her classmates a line commenting on the wonderful scenery.

MARIE BRENNER—Lovely young wife of the president of the Herman Sons in New Braunfels cutting the ribbon to the threshold of the new club house.

MARY BETH CAMPBELL—Up and coming young designer, who has just introduced the new look 'n surgeons' gowns.

ANGELITA CASTILLO—Escorted by the son of the President of Mexico, introduced at a gala ball.

ADELE D'ORTONA—Making her tour with the Philadelphia Opera Company in a starring role in Rigoletto.

"Out of the Harbor into the Deep"

Far from the arms of Golden Youth we go forth to meet the challenge of Age; far from the sanctuary of our beloved Alma Mater we prepare to start forward on our journey on the Sea of Life. Yet we fear not the unknown depths, the unforeseen dangers, for we know our ship is strong and sturdy and safe. The white, fluttering sails of purity, the ropes of perseverance and sacrifice, the light of faith and the anchor of hope will bring us all to our Home Port. But more important than our actual journey is the precious cargo we must forever carry and safe-guard—the cargo of a pure heart and a clean soul: the jewels of a Queen. We shall sometimes feel tempest tossed and weary, oppressed and forgotten, but it is then that we shall draw new strength from the things of the past. Yes many will be the times we must call on the past to aid us in the future. So with these thoughts, we, the Seniors of '48, prepare to sail "Out of the Harbor into the Deep."

*"Ave Maris Stella,
Dei Mater Alma
Atque Semper Virgo
Felix coeli porta"*

CLASS FLOWER

We, the class of 48, have chosen the red rose as our symbolic flower, not only because of its apparent classical beauty, but also for the deeper and more beautiful things it brings to our minds. Gracefully modeled and beautifully colored, this flower stands out as a beauty among beauties, a regal queen of the brilliant domain of Flowerdom. Poised and gracious it stands as we would stand—the long tapering stem, a sceptre of strength of character; the delicate petals, jewels of grace and femininity; the intense, ever-living color, the symbol of the warmth and love of ever young hearts. We are striving and shall forever strive to capture the beauty and splendor of this flower in our souls for to us it is 'her' flower and its splendor is but the reflection of the overlies of all roses, the Mystic Rose.

OUR CLASS SONG

MELODY

(LONG AGO AND FAR AWAY)

St. Mary's School we say goodbye,
The time to part is nigh
And friends we love we must be leaving,
Books and games we leave behind,
New comrades we shall find
Where ere we go!

Memories will linger on,
Long after we have gone
From halls and grounds we love so dearly,
So we pledge our love to you,
And say goodbye to
Our St. Mary's School.

OLGA RODRIGUEZ

OUR CLASS COLORS

Red-rosy and soft, silver-regal and glittering, how we like to think of these colors as the red rays of the sun and the silver lining of the clouds; the red robe of the Sacred Heart and the shining sceptre of Christ the King; the deep red of the Queen of flowers and the silvery light of a smiling moon.. These colors must have a special significance for us, for we must light the world and set it aflame with our youth, our ideals, our high standards of noble ambitions and aspirations.

OUR LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

We, the Seniors of 1948, of St. Mary's Parochial School, being of sound mind, and in the presence of due witnesses, do hereby make and publish this last Will and Testament, thereby revoking and making void all former wills made by us before this date.

To our Pastor, Father John, we leave our "Thank You" for the interest he has taken in us during our years at St. Mary's, and especially a heartfelt gratitude for his wonderful guidance.

To Sister M. Finian, our principal, we give our sincere thanks for her valuable lessons and the beautiful sentiments with which she inspired us during our last year.

To the faculty we leave our prayers and appreciation for their thoughtfulness throughout our years at St. Mary's.

To Sister St. Rita the senior class leaves a very special remembrance in our prayers and thoughts because of her wonderful interest and help in publishing this Marian of 1948.

Lastly to the Juniors, our successors, we will the following valuable estates:
